\ with permission of faculty*

Students are required to earn a total of 122 credits in order to graduate.

The Liberal Arts courses are merely a suggestion of sequence.

AHI Group A – choose one: Courses include: AHI 200, 211, 238, 280, 295, 390, 399

BFA students have the option to create a combined concentration by taking nine advanced studio credits in each of two areas (Drawing/Painting, Photography, Printmaking, and Sculpture) with the permission of a faculty member from each area. Advanced studio courses may be taken for a maximum of three credits in each studio area per semester for a maximum total of six credits per semester.

It is suggested that students enroll in Junior Review, along with Critical Concepts and the first Advanced Studio course in the Fall semester; however, Junior Review may also be taken in the Spring Semester.
